KSHAN 2018:

At VIVA School of Architecture, we strive to imbibe within the fraternity a religion of sensitivity and thoughtfulness, a desire to connect to the people and the society we live in and an emotion to give back to the society.

Here we showcase some links to share the moments of humanity and compassion created by our young soldiers.

VIVA School of Architecture in association with

"This Friendship Day, Lets show gratitude to those people who help us every day but we never look back and thank them"

KSHAN 2019:

We celebrate friendship day every year with our beloved friends, we party, we gift, and we do everything to make them feel special. But, there are many folks who are deprived of this special day. Keeping these things in mind, every year the students of VIVA School of Architecture along with their social awareness team KSHANN celebrates an innovative friendship day which makes the day special for such fragments in the society.

This year on the occasion of friendship day, the students of VIVA School of Architecture are going to visit an Ashram school located at Bhatane, Palghar district, Maharashtra on 2nd August and celebrate the friendship day with the children studying in this school.
